War Department of Mexico City Reports Fighting at El Puerto Near Torreon REBELS ORDER RIFLES

Constitutionalists Place Big Order for Arms and Ammuni- tion for Torreon Campaign

HOPE TO BUY OLD U. S. RIFLES

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 5.—Seventy one persons were killed at El Puerto near Tampico, according to the war department in an unsuccessful attack today on the federals.

Monterrey today for the first time in many weeks was in communication by telegraph and railroad with the capital.

Bandits Captured; Leader Escapes.
Jaurez, Mexico, Feb. 5.—Maximo Castillo, the bandit leader, after twenty-two of his men had been captured and executed by a revolutionary force at El Valle, near Casas Grandes, set fire to the woodwork of the Drake tunnel which carries the Mexico Northwestern railroad through the continental divide and escaped to the mountains according to an official report received at the Municipal Cuartel here today. The men were captured and summarily executed yesterday the report says. Castillo depredations took place today.

The Drake tunnel runs through soft earth and the burning of the wooden sheathing may entail heavy loss by cave-ins. Castillo formerly was the chief of the body guard of Francisco I. Madero, late president of Mexico.

In the present revolution he and his band of fifty or sixty followers have been raiding the non-combatants. Castillo has harassed the Mormon colony at Casas Grandes and is charged with the murder of George Searcy, a member of the colony who when a prisoner failed to produce the ransom demanded.

The rebels today placed an order for 1,000,000 Mauser cartridges, 10,000 carbines and 5,000 rounds of shrapnel for use in campaign against Torreon. In addition they hope to obtain much of the supply of rifles and ammunition impounded by the United States government in the last two years in time for use in the movement southward. From Chihuahua came word that General Villa might return to the border for a few days to facilitate the purchase of ammunition. Onward of ammunition was ready to be taken across the river when it was stopped because it had not been paid for.

Want Discarded Army Rifles.
Washington, Feb. 5.—Persons reported in official circles to be representing the Mexican constitutionalists are trying to buy from the United States government discarded army rifles, with which the arsenals are well stocked.

Secretary Garrison said today that he had been approached on this subject and while he declined to give names, he indicated that he at least suspected that the would-be purchasers were Mexicans. He said he had not made up his mind that the war department's answer would be but in official circles it was regarded as highly improbable that a sale would be made.

The practice of the government in disposing of replaced arms Mr. Garrison pointed out, has been to exact a convenient from the purchasers that the arms be sent "across seas." The present negotiators, he said, would enter into no such covenant, though they readily agreed that the arms would not be used in the United States. Now that President Wilson has revoked the order against the shipment of arms, and ammunition into Mexico the revolutionists are busily engaged in buying up all the munitions of war that are to be had along the American border. The supply from private sources is said to be costly, however, and by buying directly from the United States government the constitutionalists could secure comparatively cheaply weapons exactly suited to their purpose.

The confidential agency of the constitutionalists here stated tonight that no one had been authorized by its officials to attempt the purchase of arms directly from the American government. It was suggested that possibly speculators were after the rifles with the view of re-selling them to the revolutionists.

I. W. W.'s Given Life Imprisonment

MARYSVILLE, Calif., Feb. 5.—Richard (Blackie) Ford and H. D. Suhn, said to be Industrial Workers of the World, convicted of the murder of District Attorney Maxwell during a riot of hop pickers, August 31st, were sentenced to life imprisonment today by Superior Judge McDaniels. A deputy sheriff and two hop yard employees also were killed in the riot.

Commenting on the circumstances that led up to the Wheatland riot, Judge McDaniels said the rights of labor to organize nor the right of labor to strike were not involved as these rights were recognized so long as labor stayed within legal limits.

"Under the evidence this is a case of sordid murder," said Judge McDaniels, "a case wherein the law was broken without adequate cause of justification."

He said the defendants Ford and Suhn were professional agitators.

WILL ENDEAVOR TO HAVE PROVISION REPEALED

WILSON OPPOSES PANAMA CANAL ACT PROVISION

President Will Urge Repeal of Provision of Panama Canal Act Which Exempts American Coast-Wise Ships From the Payment of Tolls.

Washington, Feb. 5.—President Wilson announced today that he would endeavor to have repealed at the present session of congress that provision of the Panama canal act which exempts American coast-wise ships from the payment of tolls. He made his position clear to callers today in unequivocal terms.

The president believes that the Hay-Pauncefote Treaty with Great Britain guarantees equality of treatment to all nations including the United States in the matter of tolls and that the United States is in honor bound to charge American vessels the same tolls it imposes upon those of foreign nations. The president expressed his belief that he would use every legitimate influence at his disposal to have the exemption clause eliminated from the Panama act.

This announcement was expected by administration leaders at the capital. The president's views will be carried out in the house with little difficulty to Representative Adamson, chairman of the inter-state and foreign commerce committee, who said tonight congress undoubtedly would act quickly by a straight out repeal.

Not so certain, however, are some of the Democratic leaders in the senate that the president will be sustained in his resolve on this question which has agitated American relations with Great Britain for several years and has been a subject of international controversy since the passage of the Panama act in August 1912. Senator O'Gorman, chairman of the inter-oceanic canals committee which had led the victorious fight in the senate to exempt American coastwise vessels from the tolls tonight declared his purpose to stand by his convictions and fight the president's desire.

The president's announcement grew out of a report that he did not seek action at the present congress. ## FARMERS OF NORTHWEST WILL BENEFIT BY NEW LAW

Duluth, Minn., Feb. 5.—"If the farmers of the northwest are to suffer any losses because of the new tariff law they will be more than compensated by gains accruing through other effects of the law," said Dean A. F. Woods of the agricultural college of the University of Minnesota at the agricultural and educational conference here today.

"The reduction in tariff may tend to lower the price of wheat but many articles which the farmer buys will be cheaper," he said.

The conference ended this afternoon.

SOUTHERN SENATORS OPPOSE AMENDMENT

SENATOR JONES' PROPOSAL LEADS TO SHARP DEBATES

Amendment to Agricultural Extension Bill Would Insure to Negro Colleges the Administration of Portion of Funds Proposed For Farm Demonstration Work.

Washington, Feb. 5.—An amendment by Senator Jones of Washington to the agricultural extension bill which would insure to negro colleges of the south the administration of a portion of the funds proposed for farm demonstration work, led to sharp debates in the senate today over the racial question. Senator Jones for over three hours defended the principal of his amendment which was still pending when the senate adjourned. Senators Hoke Smith of Georgia and Vardaman of Mississippi contended that the administration of the appropriation should be left in the hands of the white man who would "do more for the negro than the negro could do for himself."

Senator Jones had not proceeded far with his argument that the negro should be allowed to handle a part of the funds from the federal treasury before Senator Vardaman suggested he had "better take a few days off and study the question."

When Senator Jones said he was speaking from the results of his investigation of the question Senator Vardaman replied:

"Then the senator is speaking from his misinformation."

"The Mississippi senator wanted to know if Senator Jones would be willing to allow the Japanese to share in the administration of the fund allotted to the specific states."

"Yes, if the Japanese were citizens, but they are not," was the emphatic response.

The ire of Senator Martin of Virginia was aroused when Senator Jones read a paper he recently had prepared on the advance of the negro race.

General Debate Concluded.

General debate on the Chamberlain bill authorizing the president to construct a government railroad in Alaska was concluded by the house. The measure will be taken up for detailed consideration next Wednesday and Representative Houston in charge of the bill said tonight every effort would be made to hurry it to final passage. It already has passed the senate. More than two score members of the house made brief speeches for and against the project today. Representatives Mann of Illinois and Borland of Missouri making the principal arguments favoring it and Representative Dies of Texas opposing it. Mr. Dies denounced the measure as opening the way for paternalism and as socialistic.

Republican Leader Mann declared that the same cry had been raised against every extension of governmental activity.

COMPLEXITY OF LAW SAVES RAILROADS MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

Head of St. Louis Produce Co., Advocates Commerce Court to Protect Shippers.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 5.—"This country should have a commerce court similar to those in several European countries to protect shippers from the railroads," said F. W. Brockman, head of a St. Louis produce company in an address before the convention of the Western Fruit Growers' association here. Mr. Brockman charged "the monstrous complexity of the law with its technicalities" enabled the railroads to save millions of dollars every year that rightfully should go to shippers for losses and damages.

"One favorite method of the railroads," he said, "is to take from six to twelve months to investigate a claim for damages to a shipment, then come forward with an offer to compromise at 50 per cent. Thus the railroads are paid millions of dollars on compromise claims that are absolutely meritorious."

OPERATORS TAKE ISSUE WITH SECRETARY WILSON

REFUTE STATEMENTS CONTAINED IN

Assert Statement That Probably Thirty or Forty Persons Had Been Killed on Each Side Was Not Confirmed During the Secretary's Stay in Colorado—He Spent His Time With Strike Leaders.

DENVER, Feb. 5.—Issue with statements regarding the Colorado coal strike, contained in the annual report of William B. Wilson, secretary of labor is taken by the operators of the three largest coal mining companies in Colorado in a signed statement today. The declaration is signed by J. F. Welborn, president of the Colorado Fuel & Iron Company; J. C. Osgood, president of the Victor-American Fuel Company, and D. W. Brown, president of the Rocky Mountain Fuel Company. Touching on Secretary Wilson's statement that a proposal for arbitration from the department of labor was rejected by the employers while the miners were willing to accept it, the operators say:

"The only proposal for arbitration was made in a letter of Nov. 27th, 1913, signed by Governor Ammons and Secretary Wilson, this proposal was withdrawn by Mr. Wilson and Governor Ammons, when their attention was called to the fact that the terms of another proposal, which they had made, had not been complied with and suggested that until the miners had acted thereon it was inadvisable to consider any other."

"The secretary's statement that probably thirty or forty persons had been killed on each side was not confirmed," continues the operators' statement. "The only authenticated killings which had been brought to the attention of authorities were thirteen persons, nine of whom were guards, or other company employees three strikers and one outsider killed at Ludlow, Durango, Colorado, by the miners."

"The secretary's statement that the miners had acted thereon it was inadvisable to consider any other."

OPTION ELECTIONS TO BE HELD IN MANY TOWNS

ANTI-SALOONISTS IN CHICAGO ABANDON PLAN TO PROCURE VOTES

Some of Leaders of Movement Think it Inadvisable to Bring Issue to Vote in Big City at This Time—Rockford, Bloomington, Quincy and Springfield Will Decide Question in April.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—Opponents of saloons in Chicago tonight abandoned a plan to procure a vote at the spring election on the closing of barrooms. Leaders in the anti-saloons league had previously announced that a petition to have the question of ousting saloons placed on the ballot had been signed by a sufficient number of voters.

At a meeting of the league tonight it was discovered that the legal requirements had not been met by the petition. It also developed that some of the leaders of the movement to oust saloons thought it inadvisable to put the question to a vote now.

Option elections will be held in many towns and cities throughout the state this spring and it had been said by anti-saloons leaders that with the women voting, Chicago and all the rest of Illinois could be made prohibition territory. Opponents of the prohibitionists declare they have statistics to show the female vote will have no effect on saloons.

Quincy now has 146 saloons.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The United States, it became known at the state department today, has issued a call for the holding of the third peace conference at The Hague next year. This government took this action, it is understood, at the request of Queen Wilhelmina of Holland.

This council is composed of the ministers of foreign countries resident at The Hague, the United States being represented by minister Vanduyke.

If the responses received are favorable about which there is little doubt the individual members of the council will receive the instructions of their own governments regarding the program and be in position speedily to weld them together and fix a date for the gathering, which probably will be some time in July next year.

SCHMIDT IS FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER IN FIRST DEGREE

Penalty of Killing Anna Aumuller Is Death In Sing Sing Electric Chair

SHIELDED PHYSICIAN?

Schmidt's Counsel Asserts Former Priest Shielded Physician After Murder and Is Not Guilty TO BE SENTENCED WEDNESDAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Hans Schmidt was found guilty today of murder in the first degree for killing Anna Aumuller, a young woman he had married through a self-performed ceremony while acting as a priest at St. Joseph's church. The penalty for the crime is death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison. He will be sentenced next Wednesday.

Schmidt, whose defence was insanity laughed bitterly when the verdict was pronounced. He had steadfastly declared himself guilty and at this arraignment, before being held for the supreme court, pleaded that he be punished by death. Later he protested against the insanity defense advanced by his counsel and tonight said he would not assist them in any way if they prepared an appeal.

"I would rather die tonight than tomorrow," he said. "It is as it should be and as I wish it."

This was the second trial and the jury was out a few minutes less than five hours. At the first trial the jury disagreed. Alienists for prosecution and defense supplied most of the testimony at both trials. Schmidt's counsel late today hoped that if he was not acquitted on the grounds of mental unsoundness the degree of guilt fixed by the jury would be second degree murder for the jurors, sending out for instructions shortly after retiring were informed by Justice Vernon M. Davis, that they could if they wished pronounce a verdict less severe than death.

All Facts Not Before Jury.

A. C. Koehbe of Schmidt's counsel asserted after the verdict that owing to the former priests persistent silence concerning the crime it had not been possible to place all the facts before the jury. He said Schmidt was not guilty of murder but had shielded a physician after the woman's death. She was not murdered the lawyer declared. If the police would display energy he said, they could get at the truth. The lawyer was undecided whether he would take an appeal.

"Father Schmidt will never go to the electric chair," he added.

Anna Aumuller's body was cut with a knife in Schmidt's flat on Sept. 2nd and the pieces, in several bundles, was tossed into the Hudson river, where most of them were found before suspicion was directed against Schmidt. The head was never recovered.

Schmidt in his confession to the police said he was commanded to make a "sacrifice" of the Aumuller girl's life by his patron, St. Elizabeth.

FIRE AT RESIDENCE OF GEORGE W. BROWN THURSDAY

Blaze of Unknown Origin Does Considerable Damage—Small Fire on Sharp Street.

Fire of unknown origin was discovered Thursday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence of George W. Brown, 996 East College avenue, and the house was damaged to the extent of three or four hundred dollars before the blaze was extinguished. The flames had gained considerable headway before discovery and the alarm was given by neighbors before the family were aware that anything was wrong. The department was notified and firemen made a quick run in spite of a small delay caused by the backing of one of the horses. The loss is covered by insurance.

The greater part of the roof was burned away and the upper part of the house practically destroyed. The principle damage to the first story rooms was caused by water; most of the plastering will have to be replaced. Mrs. Brown is visiting in Chicago and had not, at the first report, been notified of the fire.

An alarm was turned in at 7:30 Thursday evening calling the fire department to the residence of James Murphy at the corner of Sharp and Water streets where a small blaze had been caused by some one carelessly dropping a match into a cradle. The fire was out when the firemen arrived and no damage was reported.

MISS MATTIE TAPP

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

A number of friends of Miss Mattie Tapp gathered at the residence of Mrs. Oswald on East State street Wednesday afternoon, surprising her on her birthday. The hours from 3 to 5 were pleasantly spent with music and song and Mrs. Cocking recited a beautiful poem. Delicious refreshments were served after which a birthday rhyme, sent by F. M. Coard, was read. The friends brought with them a number of gifts.

All, years ago, no matter where,
Beneath what roof or sky,
I dreamed of days, perhaps remote,
When ships of mine that were aloft
Should in the harbor lie.

While ships of which I never thought
Were sailing o'er the sea,
And one by one with costless lade
In safety all the voyage made
And brought their freights to me.

And they were weightier, far than gold,
They still increase, though I grow old,
And are beyond compare.

Would all the restless hearts I see,
Had ships like these that came to me.

A Guest.

Mr. Coard's poem follows:
We often find a pebble here and there,
And sometimes a boulder, too,
Piercing the pinched up foot,
Incased within the shoe—
Walking carefully and slowly, till reaching home,
Sitting, musing, silently, as in the past, all alone.

Yet down life's pathway, sweet words
And tender smiles have passed their way;

Scattering sunshine and joy
Through the shadows all the day;
Outside of self, you so often wish to be
See what someone has missed, because they didn't see.

Your birthday, age, I didn't ask,
Because most ladies don't care to tell;

It depends on which side of the hill,
But then, it's just as well,
Years enough to be firm and wise
And not to spend life in sighs and cries.

Then may your future years be that of beautiful joy and thought
With priceless words to speak
That can't be bought
With life's golden pathway leading above,
To carry a jeweled message to a God of love.

Wool which never saw the back of a sheep is being largely used in Europe for making men's clothes. It is known by the name of limestone wool, and is made in an electric furnace. Powdered limestone mixed with a certain chemical is thrown into the furnace, and after passing under a furious blast of air is tossed out as fluffy white wool. After coming from the furnace the wool is dyed, and finally made into lengths of cloth.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON READINGS AT LIBRARY

Miss Janette Powell was the reader yesterday afternoon at the second number of the Thursday afternoon series at the public library. She gave some of Edward Lear's nonsense verse, selections from the "Adventures in Wonderland" by Lewis Carroll, after which she read "Sohrab and Rustem" by Arnold. As the first number of the series Miss Helen Allen read last week, Bret Harte's "Heathen Chinee," and two of his short stories, "Miss Peggy's Protege" and "How Santa Claus came to Simon's Bar." About forty young people were present both afternoon and the interest shown in the stories told by the readers made it seem too bad that more were not there to enjoy the literary treats offered. This course of readings was planned by the librarian for eighth grade and high school girls but several boys have asked to come and adults have been present both times. Every one is welcome and people are urged to come early so as not to interrupt the reader. Next Thursday Miss Powell will read George Elliot's "Spanish Gypsy."

PYTHIANS WILL CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Two Jacksonville Lodges to Hold Joint Ceremonial Feb. 19, in Observance of Jubilee Year of Order's Founding. Thursday, Feb. 19, will be observed throughout the entire country as the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Pythian order and Jacksonville lodge No. 152 and Favorite lodge No. 376, K. of P. are planning for that date a fitting joint celebration and ceremonial at which a musical and literary program will be given and an address made by Eugene E. Bone of Springfield, past chancellor of the grand lodge of Illinois. Preparations for the golden jubilee celebration are in charge of the board of trustees of the respective lodges, F. J. Kellogg, R. C. Reynolds and W. S. Badger for 152 and Charles Rataichak, Charles Seymour and J. J. Reeve, representing 376. The doors will be open at 7:30 and the program will begin promptly at 8:00 o'clock. This country-wide observance of the fiftieth anniversary of Pythianism is in accordance with a proclamation of the supreme chancellor, Thomas J. Carling of Macon, Ga., who says: "The 19th day of February, 1914, will be the fiftieth or golden anniversary of the order of Knights of Pythias and it is my desire, and I now request, that each lodge either singly or in conjunction with other lodges hold a public celebration in commemoration of the birth of the beloved order." The Knights of Pythias lodge was founded Feb. 19, 1864 in Washington, D. C., by Justus Henry Rathbone who met with twelve of his friends and read them a ritual he had prepared in which he made Greek characters, Damon and Pythias, the basic underlying principle. From this humble beginning in those days of civil strife when men were torn by hate and fraternal contest, the great order founded on friendship has grown to be nationwide and to embrace almost a million members. While the national order has been progressing and expanding, the Knights of Pythias lodge in Jacksonville has been prosperous and fittingly honored by higher circles of the order. Jacksonville Pythians have furnished a grand chancellor to the supreme lodge in the person of Judge Charles A. Barnes and two officers of the grand lodge are now Jacksonville men, J. J. Reeve, of Favorite lodge, No. 376, grand master at arms, and M. F. Dunlap, of No. 152, for the past eighteen years grand master of exchequer. Announcements will be issued for the jubilee celebration within a few days and the members of the two lodges and their wives and lady friends will be invited to attend. After the reading of the special ritual and the address by the past grand chancellor a program will be rendered in which music will be furnished by the Pythian orchestra and the Pythian quartet. Readings will be given by Miss Esther Spoons and Mrs. Pearl Ebrey. McCarty's Arabs will put on a drill after which the floor will be cleared and the young people who so desire may take part in dancing.

LITERARY SOCIETY GIVES MUSICAL

Adelphian Members Delight Large Audience.

The musical program of the Adelphian Literary society of the high school was given last night in the auditorium before a crowd that taxed the seating capacity of the room. The large audience was doubtless due to the newness of this form of entertainment given by a literary society of J. H. S. this being the first one held.

The program revealed the fact that the society contains much musical ability among its members. The "Pavane" (violin) number by Miss Carrie Mackness and Frank Gruenewald, was greatly appreciated and they were called back for a second time. The readings by Misses Helen McDonald and Helen Harney were well received and Kentucky Babe, created quite a hit. The girls choruses had to respond to encores and each one who took part could well be complimented. So successful and entertaining was the evening that doubtless other similar entertainments will be held. The program was carried out as published in Thursday morning's Journal.

RED AND BLACK SQUAD WILL TRY TO BREAK HOODOO

Springfield High School Basketball Team Comes Tonight For Fast Contest Against the Jacksonville Five.

A fast game of basketball is scheduled for this evening at 8 o'clock in Armory hall, when the Red and Black squad of Springfield line up against the Jacksonville five in a return game. Springfield cleaned up on Jacksonville when the local lads hit the trail over at the Capital City recently and while J. H. S. is going to work hard to win the contest, Springfield likewise is going to try to break the hoodoo, which has always attended their visits to this city. For several years the teams have broken even and the outcome of the game will go a long way toward getting a line on Jacksonville's real strength for the tournament. The game promises to be a fast one from start to finish. Jacksonville will have in their regular lineup and Springfield will bring over Schneider, English, Sternaman, Adkinson, Vogel, Wilson and Turnbull.

Tournament Arrangements.

Superintendent Collins has sent out 40 letters relative to the basketball tournament which will be held here February 27-28. The territory goes as far as Canton, Quincy, East St. Louis, and takes in Springfield which is thinking strongly of joining this district. There are 14 schools in the territory who can send teams and five schools have already replied.

Invitation To Meet.

The Jacksonville high school has received an invitation to enter the track meet of the Illinois Valley association which is to be held in Pittsfield. It is probable that J. H. S. will enter a team.

"The Speckled," Conan Doyle's own dramatization of his story of that name, is being presented in Chicago with Miss Anne Sutherland, H. Cooper Cliffe and a number of other well known players in the cast.

Sundermann's newest play, "Claudian's Hymn of Praise," has been produced in Berlin. The play deals with the crucial struggle for supremacy between Germanism and Rome. The author introduces the Emperor Honorius as the personification of decadent Rome, and also the Vandal, Stilich, whose portage, the poet Claudius Claudianus, later becomes his benefactor's betrayer.

DAY OF PRAYER

AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Strong Sermon Was Given By Rev. Martin D. Hardin of Chicago.

The Day of Prayer for Colleges was observed at Illinois college by a special chapel service at 9:45, addressed by the Rev. Martin D. Hardin, of the Third Presbyterian church, Chicago, and a joint meeting of the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian associations Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The latter meeting was addressed also by Dr. Hardin.

The speaker took his text from the New Testament story of the Woman of Samaria, who was met by Jesus at the well. He spoke of the part played by the "living water" and the "bread of life" and drew a number of valuable lessons illustrating the place of religion in the life of a student. A number of friends of the college were present to hear Rev. Mr. Hardin, who proved to be a very effective speaker.

The opening prayer was made by Dr. R. O. Post and the scripture lesson was read by the Rev. Leonidas H. Davis. Miss Rebecca Shellenbaker favored the assemblage with an appropriate solo. At the academy hall meeting yesterday evening a vocal solo was given by Miss Flossie Cox and a violin selection by Dean Cochran.

DAY OF PRAYER OBSERVED AT ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Bishop Sheppard Delivered Strong Sermon to Young Women Thursday Morning—Speaker Pointed Out Pathway to Real Happiness.

The day of prayer for colleges was well observed at the Woman's College and a good many visitors were present at the morning exercises. The music and opening exercises were impressive and well conducted at the close of that part of the program Dr. Harker introduced Bishop Sheppard of whose remarks a short outline is given.

"I want you all to be happy although all may be reasonably happy though all do not seek happiness in the right manner. We do not want to be foolishly nor silly happy but in the right manner. There are in the world, famines, wars, pestilence and disasters and we cannot ignore them. We live in a world of sin and sorrow and we are forbidden to be easily happy by indifference to the wants and needs of others. Christ had His own sorrows, but He bore the sorrows of the world and came to bring joy to all. This is God's world and He wants His children to be happy.

"Suicides are on the increase because many feel life is not worth living and are unhappy because of our position and condition in life. The apostle rightly said that all things are ours. It is true. We look on too many bible texts as if they were allegories and not every facts. We have property to which man has given a title but that is only on paper while our Father gives us everything. The property of the family is owned by all in common. All men working for my Father are working for me; they may be Presbyterians, Baptists, Congregationalists or other denominations but they are in my service. This is my country and every patriot working for its betterment is working for me.

"The world is mine but I do not want it exclusively for I wouldn't know what to do with it but I can enjoy its attractions and beauties. Life is to me a schooling, a probation, a chance to make character. How would we learn to swim without water? How learn patience without trials? How be strong to resist temptations? The world is ours to enjoy; its beauties; the forests, the fields, the waters. How beautiful the rising of the sun though I pity the one who never sees it rise and the one who has to see it. The lands of the world are ours: India, China, Japan, are ours to enjoy. It is mine to help their people, pray for them and sympathize with them.

"They are ours to serve and life is inglorious without service. Life is ours. When the immortal John B. Gough looked first at a mountain he was awed by its immensity but he shook his fist at it saying, 'I am larger after all than you for I can climb to your top and delve into your sides and my soul is immortal.' We have eternal life and nothing is better.

"Even death is ours but how different to different individuals. Two men just alike are suffering the same illness, have the same physician and nurses. One passes away and that is the end of all he has known and possessed; the other passes away and enters on a glorious hereafter with the redeemed in glory, his fondest hopes realized, his joys begun and a blissful eternity awaiting him.

"A precious sister left our home for the company of the angels. Sadly we followed the beloved form to the cemetery but we knew that while we mourned she was singing around the great white throne, her troubles over and she in happiness forever. Christianity is not an obligation; it is a conviction; it cannot be wrong. It is not a thing to be

Two New Heroes of the Sea Revealed by S. S. Monroe Wreck.

Photos copyright, 1914, by American Press Association.
 CAPTAIN JOHNSON. OPERATOR J. E. KUEHN.

The wreck of the steamship Monroe off the coast of Virginia, with the loss of forty-two passengers and crew, reveals two new heroes of the sea. They are Captain E. E. Johnson of the Monroe, who acted with judgment and coolness in the emergency caused by the collision with the Nantucket, and J. E. Kuehn, the wireless operator, who yielded his life preserver to a woman and went down with the ill-starred craft.

debated; there are eternal truths which are to be accepted without discussion. A book was sent me and its purpose was to debate the great truths of Christianity and I threw it into the fire. Christianity, the eternal truths are something to die for but not to be debated.

Christianity, the love of Christ, is a conviction and nothing shall separate us from it. If we have the spirit of Christ we are sure of immortality. The promises of my Redeemer are as sure and firm as the Rock of Gibraltar. Is life worth living? Ask Paul, Peter, the humblest Christian you know and the answer will be the same. Live then to serve the Master and love Him with all your soul; serve your fellow creatures and strive for the welfare of others and the kingdom of heaven will come and life will be glorious.

ECONOMISTS DISCUSS TAX LAWS

Bloomington, Ind., Feb. 5.—A "wide open" state conference on taxation met at the state university here today to discuss all phases of the tax problem, with a view to agreeing upon a more satisfactory plan than the old system of property tax which is still in force in Indiana. The conference will continue two days. Those in attendance include state officials, tax commissioners, economists and invited speakers from other states. Governor Ralston presided and delivered an address at the opening session this morning.

VILLAGE HAS AUTOMATIC WATER SUPPLY.

Electric Pumps Keep Michigan Village Supplied With Water—No Attendant Necessary and Water Pressure Is Constant.

The village of Farmington, Mich., has one of the most up to the minute water works systems in the country. The water is pumped from underground springs, and, with the aid of electricity, a supply is automatically maintained sufficient for general purposes and for fire protection.

Farmington is located 18 miles from Detroit. It is a village of 600 inhabitants located in a farming community. The waterworks equipment is housed in a two story building 32 by 50 feet, with an addition to the rear covering the two wells. The first floor is divided into two portions, the first part being devoted to the fire fighting apparatus, such as hose cart and ladder truck, belonging to the volunteer fire department. The other portion is used for pressure tank, furnace, switchboard, etc. There is a cistern under the floor which holds 60,000 gallons of water. The pressure tanks will hold 13,000 gallons. In the well house are located the pumps, an air compressor and a small workshop. The second floor of the building is the town hall, where dances amusements, etc., are held.

The water is pumped from the wells with electric motors driving through gear systems. The wells are 3.5 inches in diameter and 170 feet deep. The compressor is also driven by an electric motor. The fire pump in the main room draws water in case of fire from the cistern. It is driven by a 30 horse power electric motor. The pump has a capacity of 300 gallons a minute and affords ample protection for the village. The automatic operation of this system is as follows: The smaller pump working continuously pumping into the pressure system, the pressure will drop when more water is being used than being pumped. When the pressure drops to 30 pounds the fire pump cuts in and pumps water from the cistern into the pressure system until the pressure reaches 50 pounds, when it stops. When the water level in the cistern drops below a certain level the large pump cuts in and fills the cistern. When the use of water is small and the pressure is right the smaller pump will also stop.

There is no need of an operator in a plant of this kind. The village employs a man for a small sum to inspect the equipment and keep it oiled and in repair; this he can do in about an hour every day. The labor cost for operation therefore is negligible. As there is no meter on the water supplied, it is impossible to give any cost for the water pumped. The monthly bills for electric power, at four cents per kilowatt-hour, less five per cent for prompt payment, are as follows: $27.17, two months; $40.77; $40.33; $36.18; $72.75, two months; $31.77; $32.42; $39.94; $48.34; $48.37.

All water is paid for by meter and the meters are now being installed for this purpose. There are 48 consumers at present, but many are being added all the time. There is a minimum charge of $1.50 per quarter which allows consumer to use 9,000 gallons. When more water than this is used, there is a charge of $0.15 for the next 10,000 gallons and a charge of $0.10 for all over 19,000 gallons used.

The pipe used is a treated pipe. One-half mile of eight inch pipe, one mile of six inch pipe and two miles of four Receiver For Owls—James O. Hoover of Chicago has asked the circuit court at South Bend, Ind., to appoint a receiver for the Order of Owls, a fraternal organization with a membership of 267,000. Hoover claims the order owes him $10,000 for attorney's fees.

Finds Human Skeleton—Professor Lemme of Naples recently found a complete human skeleton while digging in one of the Indian mounds north of the Abbott home. It was buried with the head to the west. A bullet hole was found in the left temple. From the appearance of the bones it had probably been buried 75 or 80 years. Whether it is the skeleton of an Indian or that of a white person cannot be distinguished.

Cour Leaves C. P. & St. L.—W. H. Cour, who for the past two years has been general foreman of the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis shops at Springfield, and who has resigned that position, was presented with a diamond ring by the shop employees as a token of their esteem. Mr. Cour has not as yet accepted any other position, but is considering several offers of positions which have been tendered him by other railroads, but is undecided as to which one he will accept. Mr. Cour has been succeeded by F. J. Fisher, who has been assistant foreman.

Liquor Must Be Delivered—An ordinance enacted by the Harrisburg city council requiring purchasers of liquor to file affidavits with the express agent that the goods were to be used only for medical purposes was declared unconstitutional in Judge Stricklin's court in Harrisburg today in a replevin suit of Pat Burns against the American Express company to recover a gallon of whisky which Burns had purchased in wet territory and shipped to that city. It was held that as the liquor was bought and paid for in wet territory, the express company, being a common carrier, must deliver the package to the owner in the usual manner of delivering other merchandise.

Antebellum Claim Urged—Efforts to collect more than $100,000 from the federal government in payment of a claim for the burning of a hotel at Lawrence, Kas., by federal officers before the civil war were renewed Wednesday. The board of administration of the University of Kansas requested Senator Thompson of Kansas to reintroduce in the senate a bill to settle the debt. On May 21, 1856, a posse, led by L. D. Donelson, a United States marshal, surrounded the hotel and burned it down. The hotel owners brought a claim for damages against the government. This claim later was transferred to the university. Several bills introduced in congress to settle the claim have failed. In 1907 such a measure passed both houses, but President Roosevelt did not sign it.

COD LIVER OIL AND IRON

Two Most World-Famed Tonics Combined in Vinol.

Cod Liver oil and iron have proved to be the two most successful tonics the world has ever known—iron for the blood and the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil as a strength and tissue builder for body and nerves, and for the successful treatment of throat and lung troubles.

Two eminent French chemists discovered a method of separating the curative medicinal elements of the cods' livers from the oil or grease which is thrown away, but to these medicinal elements tonic iron is now added, thus combining in Vinol the two most world famed tonics.

As a body-builder and strength creators for weak, run-down people, for feeble old people, delicate children, to restore strength after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis or pulmonary troubles we ask you to try Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. ## Soda For Gas, Acid Stomach or Indigestion

Gas, Gas, Gas—When everything eaten turns to gas and we eructate sour food and acid fluids it means we are troubled with acidity, says a noted authority. An excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach starts food fermentation and prevents complete digestion. Then our meals sour in the stomach like garbage sours in a can, forming gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon, causing a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest; we belch gas, have sour risings, heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash and nausea.

He tells us to put aside all digestive aids and instead get from any pharmacy a package of Soda Sodagen tablets and take one tablet anytime followed by a tumbler of water which will instantly neutralize acidity, stop fermentation, absorb the gases and sweeten the entire digestive tract.

He further states that those men and women troubled with chronic acidity and its resulting indigestion, Sourness and Gases should take 10 grain Sodagen tablet regularly after meals for a period as this antacid is entirely harmless, being composed of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate. U. S. P.—Adv.

FOOTBALL RULES COMMITTEE WILL MEET IN NEW YORK TODAY

Meeting is for Purpose of Making Such Changes in the Rules for Season of 1914 as May be Desirable—Other Sporting News.

New York, Jan. 5.—The annual meeting of the inter-collegiate football rules committee will be held in this city tomorrow for the purpose of making such changes in the playing rules for the season of 1914 as may be considered desirable by a majority of the committee. There appears to be a difference of opinion among the fourteen members relative to the necessity for alteration and substitution in the present code.

Chairman Edward K. Hall, representing Dartmouth has stated that few radical changes appear likely. Prof. A. A. Stagg of Chicago University is on his way east with a list of some twenty odd proposals which he desires to see incorporated in the code. Walter Camp, of Yale states that while inter-collegiate football has reached a high state of perfection there is still room for development.

Parke Davis definitely announced tonight that at tomorrow's session of the committee he would advocate the compulsory numbering of players. Mr. Davis led the fight for this reform a year ago but was defeated.

Mr. Davis expressed the belief that the principal battle of the committee will be a re-attempt to cut down the importance of the field goal.

A change is likely in the rule which makes it possible for a runner, who is forced backward in attempting to circle the ends to throw the ball to the ground for an uncompleted forward pass, thus nullifying the loss of ground.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 5.—Marie Lloyd, an English vaudeville singer was refused re-admission to the United States today when she made formal application for permission to cross the international border line after the completion of a theatrical engagement in Vancouver. She was refused on the ground of "moral turpitude" the provision in the American immigration regulations under which her application was considered when she first applied for admission at Ellis Island, N. Y.

An appeal in the present case will be made directly to the secretary of state.

Bernard Dillon, a jockey who accompanied Miss Lloyd on her trip across the Atlantic married her in Chicago about a month ago, on receipts of a cable from London announcing the death of Hale Hurley, her first husband.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 5.—Player Frank Schmidt, who last season declined to sign a contract to play with the Boston National League club in 1914 despite the fact that he had previously accepted the club's terms was today restored to good standing in organized baseball by the National commission. The player stated that he did not sign the contract last August because of fear that the Boston club might have had a right to his services for the remainder of the season. The commission ruled that the player had not violated any regulation of national agreement baseball.

Quincy, Ills., Feb. 5.—A. R. Tearney of Chicago, president of the Three Eye Baseball League has notified the directors of the local association that the annual meeting of the league will be held at Quincy, Tuesday, Feb. 10th. At this meeting the schedule for the coming season will be adopted.

New York, Feb. 5.—The signed contract of "Dode" Criss was received by the New York American League club today. Criss was drafted from the Houston club of the Texas League last September. He lives in Sherman, Mo., where he signed his contract.

Criss will report at the Houston training camp of the Yankees on March 1st.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 5.—"With work and faith we can beat Harvard," said Head Coach Richard P. Armstrong to the one hundred candidates for the Yale's varsity team at a meeting tonight in the trophy room of the gymnasium. Active training will commence in the gymnasium tomorrow. Armstrong and E. J. Glavin, formerly of the New York Athletic club will have charge of the preliminary work.

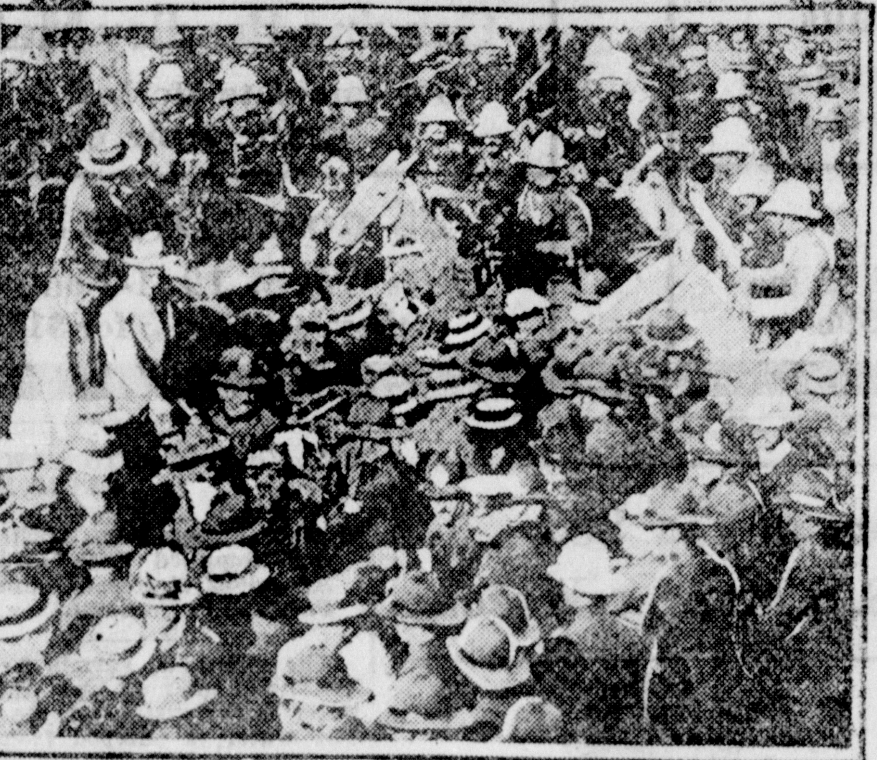

Versailles, France, Feb. 5.—Raoul de Reals, a French aviator was killed here today by a fall from a height of 600 feet when he was experimenting with a new model biplane.

St. Louis, Feb. 5.—The plans of the St. Louis club of the Federal League for the erection of grandstands in their recently acquired ball park here were officially rejected today by the building commission. It is thought by baseball men here that this action may postpone for several months the opening of the local Federal League this season. The commissioner said the stands proposed by Edward Stanger, president of the Federal club and incidentally the man who has the contract for erecting the stands, were not wholly fire proof.

Naples, Feb. 5.—A great procession of the sailing clubs, under the leadership of Count Filangeri, will meet the members of the New York baseball club of the National League and the Chicago club of the American League on their arrival here on Saturday from Cairo.

The labor troubles in South Africa have reached most threatening proportions, marked by bomb throwing and the establishment of martial law by General Botha, the premier and Boer war hero. The trouble has centered around the rich diamond mines, and the illustration shows the high barbed wire fence surrounding the pits where the precious gems are found and a crowd of strikers listening to a speech by one of the leaders. The hoops topping the fence render it unclimbable. They are composed of heavy barbed wire.

NEWS NOTES OF THE FARM

Bring Good Prices—Two cows sold at a farm sale near Ivesdale this week at $100 each and horses as high as $235.

Prosperous Business—The 1913 report for the Leroy creamery showed 8 per cent paid to the stockholders, besides expenses and $400 in the bank.

Damages Old Orchards—Saturday's sleet and snow storm seriously damaged old bearing orchards at Carmi. Young trees escaped without much damage.

Ships Monster Hog—Charles Beckman of Mt. Pulaski recently shipped a Chester White hog that weighed 910 pounds and stood forty-one inches high.

Feeding Stock Lower—A well known cattle feeder of this vicinity who recently returned from Kansas City is authority for the statement that feeding stuff is going lower in price at that market.

Efforts to Improve Quality—Efforts to improve the quality of the spring wheat in the northwest are constantly being made. A Medicine Hat, Alberta, letter said they had a lot of inquiries for Marquis wheat for seed. This is a new variety which has given the best of satisfaction. It is ten days earlier in maturing than Red Fife, gives a much heavier yield and is a first class milling wheat.

Retires Horses From Track—John Crabtree of Taylorville, owner of Hedgewood Boy and Lady Maude C., has announced that both have been retired from the race track and that neither will ever participate in another race. Hedgewood Boy has started in 71 races, been unplaced but twice, won $15,862 and is today just as sound as when foaled. He won 36 races, was 12 times second, 10 times third and 30 times fourth.

Markets Grains in Hogs and Cattle—Harry Oakes of Bluffs has been shipping hogs lately. He recently sent out twelve car loads, distributing them between Buffalo, Chicago and St. Louis. He has about 650 head on hand. He is also roughing through 340 head of stock cattle. Harry usually raises something like 700 acres of corn but is one of the farmers who believes in marketing all the grain he raises in hogs and cattle, knowing that he not only gets the best prices but that his farm is improved by the feeding.

Want Argentine Sample—A New York message says: "We are in receipt of numerous requests from Ohio Indians and Illinois for samples of Argentine corn to show farmers. This could easily be turned into an object lesson to show how free corn and

SHRINKAGE OF BEEF CATTLE IN TRANSIT IS FIGURED

News Letter Issued By Agricultural Department Presents Facts of Value to Shippers as Cattle Feeders.

The shrinkage or loss in weight of beef cattle in the course of shipment from western farms and ranches to the markets has been made a subject of special study by the department of agriculture, and what is believed to be the first authentic information on this subject has been compiled and published in Bulletin 25. The investigation covered three years in various cattle raising sections of the west. The cattle were weighed at the point of loading, on arrival at their destination, and again after having rest, feed and water. The weight was also taken when the animals were sold. The records include the weighing of Texas and northwestern range cattle and calves, and of corn fed, silage fed and beef pulp fed cattle. In all, 265 shipments were weighed, comprising over 19,000 cattle.

All cattlemen know that when live stock arrive at market they are usually lighter in weight than when they started. This loss in weight is called shrinkage. It is due to excretions from the alimentary canal and from the urinary organs, and to moisture given off by the lungs in breathing. A portion of this loss may be regained at the market by the food and water taken into the system. This is termed the "fill."

The shrinkage of cattle in transit is such a variable factor that no one can say definitely how much it will be during a journey, but by the use of very large numbers of cattle an average shrinkage will be obtained which may be used as a basis for estimating the amount of shrinkage on cattle shipped under similar conditions.

The net shrinkage (that is, the difference between the weight at the point of origin and the weight of the animals when sold at the market after taking the "fill") was found in the department's investigations to range all the way from 15 to 75 pounds per head, or from 2.14 to 7 per cent, depending upon the length of time and other conditions. The time that the cattle were in transit varied from less than 24 hours to more than 72 hours. The normal shrinkage may be regarded as from 3 to 6 per cent of live weight.

The extent of the shrinkage depends upon various factors, among which are the conditions at the time of shipping and the treatment during the journey. The shrinkage is greater when the time of the journey is long, the length of time the cattle were held without feed and water before being loaded; the nature of the fill before loading—the greater the loss occurring when this consisted of succulent grass, beet pulp, or silage; the weather and climatic conditions at the time of loading, while in transit, and at the market; the character of the feed; the difference between the shrinkage naturally being caused by slow, rough runs; the time of arrival at market.

The shrinkage during the first 24 hours is greater proportionately than for any succeeding period of the same duration.

The difference between the shrinkage of cows and steers is not as great as is ordinarily supposed. Steers will usually shrink somewhat less than cows of the same weight.

The shrinkage of range cattle in transit over 70 hours during a normal year is from 5 to 6 per cent of their live weight. If they are in transit 36 hours or less the shrinkage will range from 3 to 4 per cent of their live weight.

The shrinkage of fed cattle does not differ greatly from that of range cattle for equal periods of time. Cattle fed on silage have a large gross shrinkage, but usually fill so well at market that the net shrinkage is small. Pulp fed cattle shrink more in transit than any other class of cattle, and also show a greater net shrinkage.

For a long journey the common method of unloading for feed, water, and rest is to be preferred to the use of "feed and water" cars.

Cattle should be weighed before being loaded wherever practicable, and a comparison of this weight with the sale weight will show the net shrinkage. Moreover, this weight at point of origin may be of material benefit to the shipper in case of a wreck or a very poor run to market.

There is no way of entirely preventing shrinkage in the shipping of cattle, but by judicious care in handling and feeding the cattle just previous to shipping the shrinkage may be lessened. If cattle are to be in transit for 24 hours or longer, it is a good plan to feed about two bales of nice bright hay for each car load a few hours before loading.

When care is used in trailing the cattle to the loading pens, not driving them too fast, nor too far in a day and giving them five or six hours a day to graze on the way, long distances may be covered with no apparent injury to the cattle. On arrival at the pens it is well to give the animals a light feed of hay with a little water, or allow them to graze a short time before loading them, unless the grass is very luxuriant. An excessive fill of water or green fodder or grass just before loading is not good for the cattle, as it may cause them to scour in transit; then, too, they will not stand up as well in the cars.

Wm. C. Smith, Printer, Jacksonville, Ill.

All this was on one page, 7x9 3/4 inches.

I do not know who Smith of St. Louis was.

Henry Talmadge Collins, was a stepson of Dr. B. Gillett (Fitzsimmons house) Jacksonville. Mr. Collins was many years a teacher and a horticulturist. Part of his life was spent in Kansas. But I think he died here in Oct. 1892. Some of his children are still here.

Wm. Chauncey Carter, married Miss Julia Wolcott, and was the father of Prof. T. P. S. W. W. W. and other sons and one daughter. He was a highly successful farmer, came to town, and lived last at the corner of Westminster and Grove streets. He was a prominent man, a strong opponent of slavery, and a member of the Congregational church. He died in 1896.

Mr. E. W. Blatchford's sketch appeared in the Journal of January 28, inst.

Erastus S. Jones was the oldest son of Dr. Henry Jones, so long a practitioner here, corner W. College and Fayette st. E. S. became a physician, was a surgeon in the war, and married a Miss Richards. He practiced at Concord at one time and died years ago.

Henry M. Lyons became a physician and a man of prominence, spending his active life in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. He died many years ago.

Timothy C. Ward is an unknown to the writer, and apparently was to Pres. Tanner, when the latter got out an Alumni Register in 1872.

Wm. E. Catlin was a son of Joel Catlin and married a sister of Jeremiah Pierson, long a Justice of the Peace here. Mr. Catlin became a Presbyterian minister in this state, and the latter part of his life was spent in Idaho or Montana. He died twenty-five years ago.

Wm. Ireland, of Augustus became a minister, and went as a missionary to Africa, where he soon died.

Wm. Charles Gundy became a lawyer of great prominence in the state, settling in Lewistown about 1848, and marrying Miss Helen Judd, of New York state, in 1849. He became District Attorney and State Senator and went to Chicago to live in 1859. He was on intimate terms with Douglas, Lincoln, and all the great lawyers of their time, and became a leader at the bar of Illinois. He was one of the most continual practitioners in the Supreme Court of the United States, and won large sums of money by his practice. He was considered by President Cleveland for Chief Justice at the time Melville L. Fuller was appointed. Mr. Gundy was a prominent and generous Presbyterian, and had a high social position. He died April 29, 1893. The latter years of his life he was employed as chief counsel of the Chicago & North Western railway.

Barbara Lewis became a lawyer, settling here and marrying Miss Frances J. Wolcott. He built the home now occupied by Capt. Wm. A. Kirby, corner Mound and Lincoln avenues. Mr. Lewis went into the war in August, 1861, a captain of a company in the 1st Mo. Cav. He served through the war and located in Memphis, Tenn. During the yellow fever epidemic there, in the '70's he worked heroically taking care of the sick; and was elected to congress from Memphis. Later on he was appointed a Federal Judge in the west, and died in Washington state, I think, some twenty years ago.

Rensselaer Winchell became a clergyman. I think of the Congregational church, and lived last in Northampton, Mass.

The commencement exercises, as my uncle, Wm. C. Gundy told me, were held at what is now the north west corner of Mound avenue, and Woodland Place. Then it was a part of College Grove. The Rev. J. B. Fairbank told me that the exercises of 1843 were held in the same place.

There was a depression in the ground, or a swale, there which formed a natural amphitheatre. This was seated with planks, the platform being to the south in the lowest part of the place. This made a delightful sort of an auditorium, and all who wished to attend could find room. As Commencements were then largely attended by country people as well as those from town, it is probable that many persons took their dinners there, picnic fashion.

It may seem queer to some to see sacred music given as that part of the entertainment. But in those days people were serious minded and such music properly went with the starting of young men upon the sea of life. Today they could not better be given their entrance upon the world's uncertainties, than by the inspiring strains of some grand hymns. It is a far-away view back to 1845, but it is to be doubted how many graduates of our modern colleges could do better for themselves and for the world than the graduates from Illinois College did after that June twenty-fifth.

REAL ESTATE MEN IN SESSION.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 5.—Tampa extended a hearty welcome to the visitors gathered here from all parts of the country today for the winter social session of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges. The attendance at the gathering is unusually large. From the north and midwest many of the delegations arrived in special cars. For the visiting real estate dealers and the ladies accompanying them elaborate entertainment has been prepared by the local organizations of business men. Luncheons, automobile rides, excursions to the orange groves and a sail across the bay to St. Petersburg will be among the features of the three days' program.

ATHLETIC MEET IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Feb. 5.—An army of athletes, representing the best amateur performers in the Central A. A. U. territory, is on its way to Chicago to take part in the 20th annual indoor meet of the First Regiment Athletic association. The meet promises to be the largest of the year in this section of the country. Owing to the large number of participants the program will cover two days. Tomorrow the preliminary events will be run off. These will be followed on Saturday by the open and track events. Most interest centers in the relay races, in which teams representing Chicago, Illinois, Notre Dame and other big universities of the middle west will compete for the championship honors.

FRENCH MEMORIAL TO SCOTT.

Paris, Feb. 5.—The Captain Scott memorial, the cost of which was raised by private subscription in France, was unveiled today on the Col de Lautaret in the French Alps, whither the British explorer went in March, 1908, to make a test of the motor sleighs which he intended to use in his dash to the South Pole. The unveiling was conducted under the auspices of the French Alpine club.

WINTER OF FIFTY YEARS AGO.

Incidents of Struggle of Trains in Snow Drifts During Winter of 1863-64.

Bloomington Pantagraph: The Amboy Journal reprints from the 1864, the following story of the hardships encountered by Illinois Central railway men during the winter of 1863-64.

"On Tuesday last a train was fighting its way down from Warren from which point to this place was cleared. When the train had got about three miles this side of Dixon a rail broke into eight pieces, probably under the first engine (there were two on the train. One pair of trucks of the second engine were thrown from the track, the baggage car thrown entirely off and rolled over and the mail car thrown partly off. The hind passenger car stayed on the track all right.

"Our friend, William Beals, baggageman, was badly, but not dangerously injured, by the stove and a pile of baggage falling on him. We are glad to learn that he is getting along as well as could be expected.

"On Saturday evening last the Central was opened to Mendota and a train got out, bringing Thursday's mail. The train got stuck in the snow on Thursday night about a mile and a half below Mendota and was not got loose until Saturday, when it worked its way with help from here, arriving as before stated. When it was frozen in, of course the passengers had to stay where they were, shivering and starving until provisions and teams could be got down from Mendota. Friday night. Conductors Cole of the I. C. R. R. and Shepherd of the T. H. A. & St. L. R. R. slept in the baggage car under a robe and waked to find themselves buried under six inches of snow which had drifted in upon them during the night. Several of the passengers were slightly frozen, but none, we believe, seriously.

"The engineers on the Central, and we believe on all the western roads, demanded an advance on their wages to commence on New Year's. On those roads which did not accede to their demands, they accordingly struck. The Central gave them what they asked, we believe, with very little delay, and the boys are all on duty again driving their engines. In these times it is about as dangerous as licking rebels, and they ought to be pretty well paid. Besides a man cannot live on what he used to."

Grandma Talks
About Babies

Has a large Circle of Listeners Who Profit by Her Wisdom and Experience.

In almost any settled community there's a grandma who knows Mother's Friend.
 Not only is she reminiscent of her own experience, but it was through her recommendation that so many young, expectant mothers derived the comfort and blessing

 of this famous remedy.

Mother's Friend is applied externally to the abdomen, stomach and breasts, allays all pain, avoids all nausea, and prevents caking of the breasts.

It is quickly and wonderfully penetrating, permits the muscles to expand without the strain on the ligaments, and prepares the system so thoroughly that the crisis is passed almost without the slightest distress. Thus there need be no such thing as dread or fear.

No better nor more cheering advice can be given the expectant mother than to suggest the use of Mother's Friend. She will calm courage from the beginning. The days will be cheerful, the nights restful. Thus the health is preserved, the mind is in repose and the period is an unending one of quiet, joyful anticipation.

You can obtain Mother's Friend of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. Do not forget nor neglect to be supplied with this greatest remedy ever devised for motherhood. It is unfailing. Write at once to Bradford Regulator Co., 135 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their very interesting and instructive
 book of advice for expectant mothers.

There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend
 at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

SWIFT BUILDING

NEARS COMPLETION

CREAMERY MACHINERY WILL BE RUNNING WITHIN A WEEK.

Big Firm Has Spent $35,000 for Reinforced Concrete Structure—Location in Jacksonville Selected After Many Other Cities Had Been Considered—Will Tend to Develop Dairying Industry in County.

That Swift & Company have an abiding faith in Jacksonville and the surrounding territory, has substantial evidence in the fact that the firm has expended $35,000 in improving and enlarging the plant here.
 The addition of a creamery to the poultry and beef departments marks a real industrial advance for Jacksonville and Morgan county.
 The creamery or butter department will have a capacity of 35,000 pounds of butter per week, which will mean the consumption of about 9,000 gallons of milk. While a large part of this supply will come from outside territory yet a great deal of it will be produced on Morgan county farms and the tendency undoubtedly will be to increase the interest in dairying in this vicinity.
 During the two years since it was established the business of the Jacksonville creamery has increased in a gratifying way and the fact that the great firm of Swift & Company has put in a plant will be certain to establish Jacksonville as a creamery market. Just as dairying increases locally so will farming conditions be more prosperous and the farm land the more fertile.

Building is Spacious.

The Swift & Company building is just now nearing completion and John M. Spears who is manager for Swift & Company in Jacksonville said yesterday that it is the intention to begin actual operations in the creamery department by February 10th. The building in its general dimensions is 70 by 100 feet and it is built entirely of reinforced concrete. There is a basement under the entire structure and above it are three stories. The basement furnishes space for the refrig-erating machinery and for the hot water and heating apparatus. The building is heated by steam and the hot water is for use in both the creamery and poultry departments.

The main entrance to the building is near the northwest corner and when the visitor passes through the door there finds himself in the creamery department. The equipment includes two churns, three vats, one forewarmer, and one starter, the machinery being all of the most improved type. The entire process of making butter will be carried on in this room. The product will be put up in cartons or tubs and then conveyed by trucks into the cooling room adjoining. After remaining there for several days it will be ready for shipment to local points or to more distant territory
 as directed by the Chicago office.

Jacksonville a Good Location.

In talking about the market for the butter Mr. Spears said yesterday, "The nearest butter plant which Swift & Company operate is in Keokuk, 103 miles distant. The company has beef supply houses in a number of Illinois cities but there was not one hereabouts which combined the beef and poultry departments. After looking over the situation the company decided that Jacksonville would be an advantageous point for the establishment of a creamery and so plans were made for the building here. While we are expecting that there will be a rapid and permanent increase in the supply of cream or butter for which we can secure from Morgan county farmers, the plant will by no means be dependant solely upon this county and we expect to draw from Scott, Greene, Jersey, Cass and other nearby counties. While some of our product will be shipped locally we expect that most of it will be sent to Eastern markets. We have a man now in the field soliciting business and establishing stations for receiving cream in various towns in this territory.

"This agent is C. J. Wiley of Iowa Falls, who is an experienced man in this business. Our usual plan of payment for cream shipped is to settle at the end of each week and there are no delays in getting at the figures and issuing the checks to shippers.

"As to prices we will pay, we will not be governed by the Elgin market and will not quote the price a week at a time but will pay the best market price each day and will follow the market variations. The refrigerating machinery we have installed is simply what the name implies. We will not make ice and will continue to purchase our supply locally as has been true in the past."

Feeding Station Established.

Adjoining the butter department
 on the east is the receiving room where all poultry will be received and weighed. Adjoining this room on the south is the picking room.
 On the 2nd floor, space is provided for the supplies needed in all departments. On this floor also is the feather room and the egg candling department. The entire third floor is devoted to a feeding station. After poultry has been received on the first floor, the coops will be sent by elevator to feeding station and there the fowls will be transferred to other cages or coops and will be fed special rations for a period of about ten days. The special food which they are given includes a sort of mash made from ground corn, milk and some other ingredients. It is said that the chickens eat on weight quite rapidly when fed this ration and that the meat
 thus put on is of the best quality.

More Given Employment.

It is worthy of note in this connection that the establishment of the feeding station calls for the employment of about four more men
 and six men employees are necessitated by the creamery department.

Samuel J. Tilden, Whose Centenary
Is Now Attracting Wide Attention

The celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Samuel J. Tilden has attracted wide interest, and many prominent men accepted invitations to attend the meeting in New York announced for Feb. 9. The principal speaker, William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic national committee, states that a movement will be started to erect a monument in Washington to the statesman who was defeated for the presidency in 1876 by Rutherford B. Hayes. The illustration shows Tilden as he appeared shortly before his death and the Tilden home in Gramercy park, New York city.

ployment of about four more men
 and six men employees are neces-
 sitated by the creamery department.
 Already Swift & Co., have 22 employees here so it is easy to understand that the plant is of no little importance to Jacksonville in business way. It is important not only because of the people employed but from the added fact that so many people come to this city to do business with the firm. The added and enlarged facilities of the plant will greatly increase the amount of business done, locally, as it is expected that a great deal more poultry, and many more eggs will be received. On the present basis the firm pays out from $8,000 to $10,- 000 a month for poultry and eggs
 so it can readily be seen that large business transactions will be carried on under the new conditions. Any visitor to the building cannot but be impressed with the fact that the firm has evidently built with an eye to the future as the most spacious accommodations are provided and everything is extremely substantial in construction.

Local Firms Had Contracts.

While the firm did not let any general contract for the erection of the building most of the work was done by local contractors, among the number being, Bernard Gause, H.
 De Castro & Company, Jacksonville
 Plumbing Company, E. R. Frost, O.
 Is Hoffman, Lon Barrows, and Daniel Sweeney. There are toilet and dressing rooms for employees and the building is specially well lighted with tungsten lamps. The power for the butter department will be from motors, a current contract
 having been made with the Jacksonville Railway & Light Company.
 The new building has made it possible to add to the office space in the building and within a week or two the beef and poultry departments will have offices at the right of the main hallway, while the butter department will be at the left.
 Altogether the Swift & Company plant is an important local enterprise and Jacksonville is fortunate in being selected for the city in which the business is to be still further developed.

HOW A SUPERIOR
SCHOOL WAS BUILT

Educational Press Bulletin: In Center district, Moultrie county,
 there was recently dedicated a superior one room school, built according to the plan set forth in the One Room Country School Circular.
 There is an interesting story back of the building of this fine school house. A young man, who is one of these much maligned college graduates, was elected a director in that district. He found the school building a dilapidated, insanitary, unsightly thing, less inviting in some respects than the nearby barns.
 This young man did some observing, some thinking and some talking. He became convinced that new building must be built. He found an alarming indifference and in some quarters opposition to any proposal for a new building. Some were willing to repair but not to build. Some were against any improvement whatever. This director found that while the grown ups were divided,
 that the teacher and pupils responded to all his suggestions. He then laid his plans to reach the fathers and mothers through the children.
 He offered a prize for the best essay on an ideal country school. He secured from the national commissioner of education and the superintendent of public instruction, printed matter for the children and teach-ed. He told them that they should get all the help they could from their parents. The teacher joined heartily in this plan. Some of the opponents of improvements, thinking that a discussion of ideal plans was perfectly harmless, joined in the reading and assisted their children. After about a month of reading and talk and debate, the essays were written and a day set for their reading and the awarding of the prizes. Parents and taxpayers were invited. They came, they listened and they were not displeased. Then this young man prizes for the first and second best essays on the best school for Center district and how to get it. More reading material was furnished. Pictures and plans of one room country schools were hung on the walls and sent into the home of the district. One opponent had failed to take any interest in the first contest. His son, however, had entered the contest. One day
 this son asked for another book.
 The teacher asked what had become of the one he had given him.
 "Well, dad's reading that one all the time and I don't get any chance at it." The lesson was working.
 Well, the contest ended, the prizes were awarded, the election was held, $2,500 was voted for a new building, the building was built and was examined by the county superintendent and the county school supervisor, a superior diploma was awarded and the whole district turned out to hear the dedication speeches. Did I say all turned out?
 Isn't that a good job of work and hasn't the college graduate "made good?"

TELLS OF CALIFORNIA TREES.

George L. Thorpe of Ukiah, Calif., Tells of Trees Several Feet in Diameter.

In a letter addressed to the Journal, George L. Thorpe, of Ukiah, Calif., who was for 35 years a resident of Morgan county, tells of some large trees which it has been his privilege to measure. In part the letter is as follows:

"I see in the last copy an article about George Lewis cutting an oak tree 4 feet in diameter and calling it a large tree. This is amusing to me. It has been my privilege to be a measurer of large trees in California, as follows: The largest oak in the United States, the trunk of which has a circumference of 26 feet, 7 inches, four feet above the ground; spread, 150 feet; height, 145 feet; diameter, 8 1/2 feet. The first crotch is 12 feet through. This tree stands at Wheatland, Calif.

"The largest walnut tree in California is at Elk Creek, and the trunk 4 feet from the ground is 4 feet in diameter. It has a 100 foot spread and is 90 feet high.

"The largest pecan tree in California is also at Elk Creek, and has a diameter of 20 inches, 4 feet from the ground. This tree is 75 feet high and has a 60 foot spread. It must be remembered that the last two are not natives of California. Doubtless there are many larger ones in the Mississippi valley.

"The largest fig tree has a diameter of 2 1/2 by 6 feet, the body being somewhat oblong. It is 35 feet high and has a 40 foot spread. The writer recently worked up an old oak stump and got 1 1/2 cords of wood out of it. It was over 6 feet in diameter.

"I have also measured a rose bush which has a diameter of 10 inches, 4 inches from the ground. This bush runs up over a trellis and covers about 30 square feet. A large grapevine which I measured at San Gabriel has a stem about 2 feet in diameter and the vine covers a trellis about 100 feet square. I have visited the large redwood trees at Santa Cruz. There are many giants there, the largest being 22 feet in diameter and 306 feet high. About 100 feet of the top has been blown off, so it that had remained the tree would be about 400 feet high. All I lack in the big tree circle in California are the big trees at Yosemite or Mariposa. I hope some day to visit these places."

CAPT. INCH COMMANDS

Rotterdam, Feb. 5.—The steamship Principello, the newest and largest vessel of the Uranium line, sailed from here today on her maiden trip to New York. The new ship is in charge of Captain Francis Inch, who commanded the ill-fated Voltorno when that vessel was burned at sea last October with the loss of many lives, and who later was exonerated of any blame and warmly praised for the bravery and efficiency he displayed at the time of the catastrophe.

EDUCATION OF IMMIGRANTS

That immigrants are keenly interested in schooling for their children, or at least conspicuously obedient to school attendance laws, is the declaration of Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education. "The least illiterate of our population are the native born children of foreign parents," says Dr. Claxton, in a bulletin on education for immigrants just issued. "The illiteracy among the children of native born parents is three times as great as that among native born children of foreign parents."

Dr. Claxton reviews the whole problem of education for immigrants in and out of school. "To the people of no other country is problem of so much importance as to the people of the United States. No other country has so many men, women and children coming to its shores every year from all parts of the world."

"Many of those who have come to us in recent years are from countries having very meager provisions for public education. According to the federal census of 1910 more than 25 per cent of the foreign born population of three states was illiterate, from 15 to 25 per cent of five states, from 10 to 15 per cent of eleven states, and from 5 to 10 per cent of twenty-one states. In only one state was the per cent of illiteracy of the foreign born population less than 5 per cent.

"Most of the immigrants in recent years have little kinship with the older stocks of our population, either in blood, language, methods of thought, tradition, manners, or customs; they know little of our political and civic life and are unused to our social ideas; their environment here is wholly different from that to which they have been accustomed. Strangers to each other, frequently from traditions hostile to each other by country; of different speech and creeds, they are thrown together, strangers among strangers, in a strange country, and are thought of by us only as a conglomerate mass of foreigners. With little attention to their specific needs, they are crowded into factories, mines and dirty tenement quarters, too often the prey of the exploiter in business and the demagogue in politics.

"Immigrant education is not alone the question of the school education of children. The millions of adult men and women, and of children older than the upper limit of the compulsory school attendance age, must be looked after; they must be prepared for American citizenship and for participation in our democratic industrial, social and religious life; they must be given sympathetic help in adjusting themselves to their new opportunities and responsibilities. The proper education of these people is a duty which the nation owes to itself and to them. It can neglect this duty only to their hurt and its own peril."

LOCAL MEN WILL ATTEND
STATE FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Delegation Will Go to Galesburg, Feb. 17-19, With Intention of Securing Event for Jacksonville Next Year.

To secure for Jacksonville the 1915 State Farmers' Institute convention is the aim of a number of Morgan county men who will go to Galesburg to attend this year's sessions, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 17-19. Letters have been sent to a number of representative citizens explaining the matter in detail and it is the aim of the Rural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the Morgan County Farmer's Institute officials to have this community represented at Galesburg with a good sized delegation.

It has been fourteen years since Jacksonville entertained the state convention of the farmers institute eleven years since the institute has met in the Central Illinois corn belt, it having been held in Decatur in 1904. Chamber of Commerce officials attended the executive board meeting of the institute last year in Springfield and made an effort to have it held in this city but the prize was secured by Sterling, a city which was well represented at the previous state convention of the institute.

FORTY YEARS OF
MARRIED LIFE

MR. AND MRS. FRED SCHOLFIELD OBSERVE OCCASION.

Ruby Wedding Anniversary of Worthy Couple at the Buckhorn Neighborhood Brings Together Many Friends—Sumptuous Dinner Served and Enjoyable Time Spent—List of Guests Present.

One of the most pleasant gatherings in recent months in the Jacksonville neighborhood, was the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Scholfield, which was observed at the family residence, four miles southeast of that place Thursday. Over 50 relatives and friends partook of the hospitality of the home and were glad of an opportunity to extend their hearty good wishes and join in the festivities of the occasion.

Long before the noon hour the friends began to arrive and all were extended a most cordial welcome. It was a feast royal that was set before the guests. Two tables were utilized, which seated twelve persons each. The decorations consisted of roses, carnations, hyacinths, nasturtiums and ferns. All who know the culinary ability of the Scholfield family realize the excellence and abundance of every thing good to eat and it is needless to say that many comments were passed upon the dinner by those who had the rare pleasure of being participants.

While the guests were eating Miss Margaret Flynn gave a number of piano selections and after dinner, the hours were enjoyed in a most happy manner. Other music was furnished by Miss Rose Flynn and Miss Grace Potter. Old familiar songs were sung by the entire company to the great delight of all.

Mr. Scholfield was born in 1849 and came with his parents, James and Maria Scholfield, from England. There were seven children in the family, Thomas, Harriett, Elizabeth, Marian, John, James. John lives in California and James at Altamont, Kansas and the rest of the family is deceased. Mr. Scholfield started farming for himself when he was 21 years of age and by thrift and energy has been enabled to accumulate two good farms, which he has now given over to his boys to run.

Mrs. Scholfield before her marriage was Miss Bussey, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bussey, who lived north of Jacksonville, where she was born. They moved to the Buckhorn neighborhood when she was 19 years of age. She was one of a family of six children. The family can trace their ancestry back a great many years, being among the first settlers of the United States.

Excepting for one year spent in Iowa the Scholfield family has always resided in the Buckhorn neighborhood. It is a pleasure to record the high place that they fill in their community. Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield started out in the Christian life when young and have ever been interested in the church and its various enterprises. Among those who attended their wedding forty years ago were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bussey, who resided south-west of Jacksonville and Mrs. William Darley, west of Woodson. All of these were present at the celebration yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield are the parents of three children, Mrs. Hattie Fearneyhough, Charles Scholfield, and William Scholfield, all of whom reside in the Jacksonville community.

The cutting of the anniversary cake furnished no little amusement, Grace Flynn, secured the ring, Miss Grace Potter, the needle; Walter Bussey, the thimble; Miss Mabel Scholfield, the dime; William Scholfield, the horse shoe and Mrs. Edward Landers, the button. After the Buckhorn school had been dismissed yesterday afternoon seven of the pupils went to the Scholfield home where they were given refreshments.

In the evening a large crowd of young people of the vicinity went to the Scholfield home to join in the happiness of the hours and before leaving suitable refreshments were served.

Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bussey, Mr. and Mrs. William Darwent, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Shumaker, William Fearneyhough, Frank Masters, Mr. and Mrs. A. Currier, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Scholfield, Mr. and Mrs. William Stringer, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Landreth, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ranson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ranson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fearneyhough, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scholfield, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Scholfield, Miss Mabel Scholfield, Miss Jessie Masters, Miss Jessie Scholfield, Miss Ethel Masters, Miss Marie Bussey, Miss Margaret Flynn, Miss Mary Fearneyhough, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gibbs, Miss Bertha Tankersley, Leonard Fearneyhough, William Scholfield, George Flynn, Harry Stringer and Walter Bussey.
